General Local News.

L. BARRETT, Local Editor.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22, 1876.

Rev. W. W. Cook, preached to a large and attentive audience, last Sunday, at courthouse.

Miss Sallie Bowman, of Pleasant Ridge Park, an amiable, pleasant and accomplished young lady, who had been visiting her cousin, Mrs. A. L. Morton, of this city, for several weeks past, returned home last Thursday morning.

Last week we stated that some of our exchange had noted an absence of red-headed woodpeckers this year. Since then we have been on the look out for them, and have not yet seen one, but heard of one on the premises of A. C. Ellis, about three miles north of town.

Miss Mary Pendleton, one of Hartford's most attractive and accomplished belles, has been honored by the appointment of Princess of Hartford, by King Comas. We think the compliment very worthily bestowed.

Mrs. Phocian Morgan, and Miss Ellen Morgan, formerly residents of this place, but now citizens of Butler county, are in town this week, visiting friends and relatives.

MARRIED.—At the residence of C. J. Lawton in Hartford, Ky., on Thursday, the 16th of March, 1876, by Rev. W. W. Cook, Mr. Thos. D. Davis to Miss Julia Mosely.

Franklin's statue in Printing House Square, New York, is one of the most durable looking objects in the world, yet for all that it was recently caught casting admiring glances at a pretty girl; for which it wasn't so very much to blame as she not only had a most charming face but was most tastefully and beautifully arrayed in becoming garments made after the celebrated "Domestic Paper Fashions."

Thaddeus M. Baker, of this county, brought 21 fox heads to our County Clerk a few days ago, all of which he had caught within a month or so past, and it had not been good weather for fox-hunting, either. He will get $21 for the killing.

The Good Templars are doing good work here, and are having initiations every week. They had five last Thursday night and several have petitioned to join soon. Press on in your noble work, and drive intolerance from the land. All the members are earnestly requested to be promptly on hand at every meeting.

We are very anxious to have our friends in every part of the country, to report to us any items of news that may be abroad in their different localities. By such helps this we will always have the HERALD chuck full of local news. We wish every friend who has the success of the HERALD at heart to comply with this request.

Mr. A. S. Higgs, of Buford, this county, and Miss Mollie Crow, living near Livermore, McLean, county, having formed an attachment for each other, concluded to join heart and hand in the holy bonds of wedlock, but Miss Crow's parents objected. On last Sunday night week, Mr. Fairfax, a friend of Mr. Higgs, went to Mr. Crow's and arranged with the young lady to elope. He left about nine o'clock and the young lady was to come out to the barn as soon as she could get a chance to slip out. It was an awful cold night and she did not come till about midnight and Fairfax says he came near freezing. She finally came and accompanied Mr. Fairfax to Mr. Hinton's near Newville, and the next day they were married. As Miss Crow was of age, there was no necessity of leaving the State. We hope it may prove a happy union and wish them a long and successful life.

Elopement.
James B. Albin and a daughter of Frank James, living in the Crowwell neighborhood, ran off last Saturday. They were accompanied by a brother of the young lady. The girl is not more than 15 years old. Albin leaves a wife and children, and several creditors to mourn his loss. The trio crossed Rough creek at Hines' mill on Sunday, and said they were bound for Evansville, Indiana. This thing of married men running off with young girls, is getting to be very common.

Monstrosity.
A sow of the birkshire breed belonging to Joshua Tinsley, who lives a few miles North of this town, recently dropped thirteen pigs at one litter. One of the pigs had no hoof on one of its hind legs, but had instead, claws very much like a dog's foot. In every other respect, it was just like any other pig. It did not live long.

Fit for Tat.

Mr. Julius C. Bean, of Sulphur Springs, gave notice to the liquor dealers, in his vicinity, not to sell or give liquors of any kind to his son Wm. F. Bean, Wm. F. Bean, who by the way is of age, called at some place to get whisky and was informed of the action of his father, giving notice under the statute law not to sell him whisky as he was in the habit of getting a little "oh be joyful," once in a while. Wm. F. Bean, then gave notice to all the dealers under penalty of the statute law, not to give or sell to his father J. C. Bean, any whisky. It so happened that J. C. Bean, was doing some hauling for A. T. Hines, which was to be paid for in whisky from said Hines' distillery. When Bean got done hauling and called to get his pay in whisky according to contract, Hines informed him of the notice and said he could not pay it. We hope that neither father nor son will recede from their actions, so that both will be strictly temperate hereafter. It seems that Bean will get no pay for the hauling and that Hines will get the hauling for nothing, as he cannot pay for it according to contract, without criminalizing himself, which the law would not compel him to do.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Ohio County Agricultural and Mechanical Society, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year, viz:

- A. B. BAIRD, President.
- W. H. MOORE, Vice Pres.
- J. W. BARRETT, Sec'y.
- S. K. COX, Secretary.
- JAMES A. THOMAS, Treas.
- A. C. ELLIS

- VIRGIL RENNOR
- E. L. SULLINGER

A Card.

EDITOR HERALD.—Your article on the recent Colored Jury, contained some mis-statements which I desire to correct. First of all, in justice to every one of the parties, there was no election in the summoning of the jury or trial of the case. The citizens of the town and vicinity had been so frequently annoyed at being compelled to serve on juries for the trial of colored men for breach of the peace, that they had requested me to summon a colored jury for the determination of such cases. After being solicited by many leading Democrats, whose names I can give if necessary. I determined without consulting any one, to summon such a jury in the present instance, and until the names were called, no one in court had the least apprehension that such a jury had been summoned. There was no political move about it, nor a desire to elevate ignorance, nor even a desire to run counter to what ought to be obsolete prejudices. The court after mature reflection held that in this State, colored men are competent jurymen. They were orderly and attentive, and rendered precisely the verdict which should have been rendered. Politically, the only capital made out of the matter is from the untimely article published by you. We heard such talk when the first civil rights bill was passed, when the constitutional amendments were adopted and when the last civil rights bill became a law, and while such miserable nonsense succeeded in Kentucky, it was as it always will be, the means of keeping in the minority, the Bourbon element of the country. You can do no better service to the Republican party than to keep right on publishing just such articles. Politically, then, I am in favor of just such harangues, but as a citizen, willing to let the past bury its dead, willing to accept the situation, improve and make our State a synonym of advancement and intelligence. I regard your article as untimely, unjust and as expressing sentiments which are a clog to our prosperity. Such, too, must be the sentiments of those Democrats, at whose instance, I summoned this jury.

Big Invention.
Lloyd, the famous map man, who made all the maps for General Grant and the Union army, certificates of which he published, has just invented a way of getting a relief plate from steel so as to print Lloyd's Map of American Continent—showing from ocean to ocean—on one entire sheet of bank note paper, 40x50 inches large, on a lightning press, and colored, sized and varnished for the wall so as to stand washing, and mailing anywhere in the world for 30 cents, or unvarnished for 25 cents. This map shows the whole United States and Territories in a group, from surveys to 1875, with a million places on it, such as towns, cities, villages, mountains, lakes, rivers, streams, gold mines, railway stations, &c. This map should be in every home. Send 30 cents to the Lloyd Map Company, Philadelphia, and you will get a copy by return mail.—New York Illustrated Christian Weekly.

When I sell on 30 day's time, I don't mean 3, 6, or 12 months, but mean what I say, and all accounts must be settled at the end of every month, or they will be listed with an officer for collection.
